HISTORY OF THE FEINAUER FAMILY

LIFE HISTORY OF JOHANN MICHAEL FEINAUER

Johann Michael Feinauer was born September 17, 1825 in Oberschlauersbach, Mittelfranken, Bayern, Germany. At the age of twenty-three, he came to America to make his home. He migrated as far inland as Lower Saginaw, which is now known as Bay City, Michigan. In the pioneer days they had no census takers so the only form of record that was kept was in the church book.

The day that all the names were signed to the church book Johann and another single man went to Saginaw. But the married people, seventeen in number, had their names recorded in the Frankenlust Church book.

In a week or so the two came back to Lower Saginaw again.

The first winter Johann worked for a blacksmith named Geiger at Hermansau. When spring came the saw mill looked better to him so he worked with Mr. Hecht at what is now Frankenlust.

The next winter he turned fisherman and cook on a boat with a Frenchman. He also cleared some woods, chopping down trees where our Bay County Court House now stands.

Now that summer had come again and the days were longer, they had a little more time to think of friends and relatives in Frankenlust, but the only way they could get to see them was to use a canoe or raft to cross the Saginaw River.

It wasn't very long before Johann had made one of his own. One day a Frenchman named LeReaux borrowed the canoe to go to Saginaw. He had paddled quite a ways when he noticed something swimming in the water toward him. He started climbing into the canoe and Lo! and Behold, it was a bear. Mr. LeReaux did all he could to keep the canoe from tipping over until the bear was inside. He took his oar and hit with all his might and the oar bursted. Afraid as he was, he jumped into the water and swam to shore and ran back to Johann and the rest of his friends to tell of his experince.

The men went back to get the canoe. The bear was dead in the canoe.

After bringing the bear and the canoe back all the way, Mr. LeReaux wanted nothing of it. Mike took the bear and skinned it. He took it to his sister Christina Weiss in Frankenlust and tacked it up in the log house.

They really intended to dry it, but it was not tanned so it was ruined.

Now he went back to Hecht's Mill again to cut shingles. After working for a while he decided to buy a farm.

As soon as $200 could be gotten together, he bought a farm across the road from the Michigan House on the present West Side Saginaw road.

He didn't have this farm long when he sold it to Postmaster Schmidt for $200 and bought four lots on 10th and Water Streets. He then built a house and worked at Catlin Mill as tail sawyer but it wasn't long before he was promoted to head sawyer.

HISTORY OF THE FEINAVUR FAMILY

THE HISTORY OF SOHARU NUSTAL FEINAVUR

The history of the Feinavur family is a story of a family that has lived in the same place for over a century. The family has a long and distinguished history, and its members have been prominent in the community for many years. The family has a strong sense of tradition and values, and its members have been known for their hard work and dedication to their community.

The urge to own a farm was still there and he soon bought another forty acres on the Ridge Road. Here he moved his family after he had cleared some land and built a house.

He did not stay long on this farm with his family when he sold and moved on the west side of the river.

LIFE OF BARBARA MARGARETHA SEXLINGER

Barbara Margaretha Sexlinger was born February 24, 1834 in Grosshabersdorf in Nord Franken, Bayern, Germany.

As a very young girl she had gotten the idea that she would like to come to America. In Germany she had to work hard, she worked for a farmer and had to get up at 2 a.m. for threshing, and start at 3 a.m. working with the men for no wages, only a few clothes. After hearing that in America one didn't have to work very hard she made up her mind that she was sure she wanted to come to America. At first her parents wouldn't hear of it, but it seemed to be the only thing that Barbara could think of. Finally they decided that the only thing to do was to let her go. They gave her "100 gulden" and told her she could go if she still wanted to. After bidding her friends farewell she went to the pastor to bid him farewell. He asked her if she had any friends or relatives in America. She answered "no". He then told her to be sure that she had her handkerchief with her for she would be terribly homesick. It was at this time that Barbara heard of a girl in Oberschlauersbach who was leaving for America — it was Anna Feinauer.

The two girls turned out to be real friends. They stuck to one another on the boat and in America. On the boat were two Pastors, who had Family Altar every day. Their trip across was very pleasant with one exception, a two year old child died and was buried at sea. The sailors made the casket and the Pastor had the funeral. When they arrived in New York they took a train to Detroit. From Detroit to Lower Saginaw on a boat and on to what is now Frankenlust on a raft. Everybody from miles around were at the dock to meet them.

Barbara Sexlinger and Anna Feinauer both obtained jobs at the Catlins Boarding House. Barbara wrote her family quite often and told them how well she liked it here. After several of her letters telling about the wonderful way you can live in America, her father and mother and grandmother came over. Barbara's father built a home on Ninth and Madison. Her father lived in America thirty years and her mother died on May 8, 1881 — three years after the father.

LIVES OF JOHANN MICHAEL AND BARBARA MARGARETHA FEINAUER

Johann Michael Feinauer married Barbara Margaretha Sexlinger March 28, 1853; this happened to be Easter Monday. After they were settled in their new home they opened it for church services. When this congregation dispersed with these services Johann M. bought the communion wares for $25.00 and donated it to the Monitor Congregation in 1880. This was the year the Monitor Congregation was organized. After several years the congregation received a new communion service and the old service was donated to the Standish Congregation. The set consisted of two silver candle sticks, a black crucifix, silver urn, bread dish, and baptismal bowl, and it is still in use.

After four and one-half years of married life in the east side they decided to move to the west side of the river and Rev. Sievers bought an 80 acre farm in Monitor Township for them, which at that time was all woods. They built a shanty to live in and used oxen for hauling logs and walked to church as was the custom of that day.
